To talk about uses of information technology

To identify that a computer is a part of information technology

To explain how information technology benefits us

To identify information technology in school

To recognise different types of computers used in school

To recognise the features of information technology

To say how rules for using information technology can help us

To identify information technology beyond school

To recognise that choices are made when using information technology

To describe some uses of computers

To show how to use information technology safely

Key:

Concept

Skill

Links:

Direct prerequisite

Scaffolding not direct prerequisite